

12TH EASTERN AFRICA UNIVERSITY GAMES 2022
NDEJJE UNIVERSITY – LUWERO, UGANDA

Pre-Games Symposium

1.0 Preamble

Uganda (Association of Uganda University Sports -AUUS) won the bid to host the 12th Edition of the Eastern Africa University Games and Ndejje University was given an opportunity to host them under the auspice of the Federation of the Eastern Africa Sports (FEAUS).

The 12th Eastern Africa University Games are expected to have over 4,000 participants from over 60 Universities from the East African Region including the Democratic Republic of Congo, the new entrants. The participants will compete in 20 disciplines from 16th to 21st December 2022 at the Ndejje University Main Campus.

The host of the games is also obliged to organize a Pre-Games conference which brings together students, officials, National Federations and other key partners involved in the sports movement. This provides an academic platform for discussions on ideas and plans for the betterment of the future of Sports.

The theme for this one day Pre-Games Symposium/Conference, is: “Strengthening the Integration of Eastern Africa Higher Education through University Sports”

The cardinal objective of this conference is to allow members to deliberate on contemporary sports management issues in the regional member universities.

The specific objectives of the Conference will be:

1. To sensitize communities about the role of sports as a major tool in community partnerships and development.
2. To advocate for better management systems at various levels in order to enhance improved services.
3. To support progress through laid out structures and patterns by setting targets and smooth transition in sports administration and management.

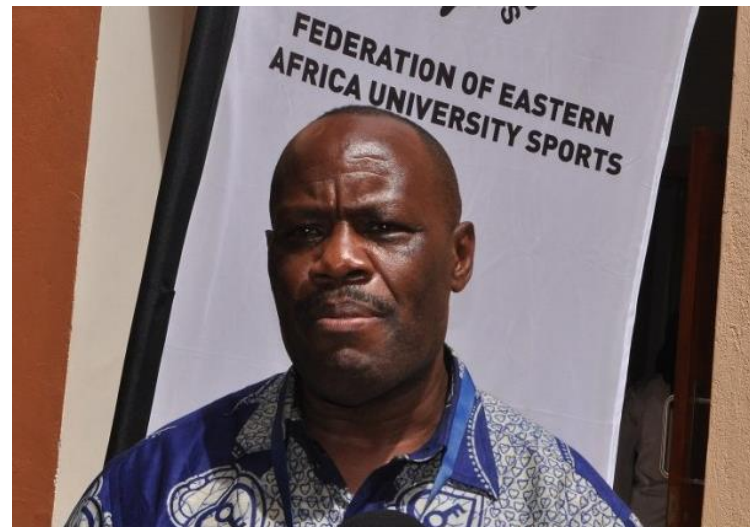

Various stakeholders who are vital in upholding University sports have been invited to bring together solutions and a pathway to a better University Sports movement.
